

Sydenham

Thank you for considering Little Elms Sydenham for your child.

We share your commitment to nurturing young minds and guiding them from their earliest days. It's a source of immense joy for us to support their development and witness their journey towards becoming independent, confident learners, well-prepared for their transition to primary school.

OUR LOCATION

Founded in 2012, Little Elms Sydenham is tucked away in a peaceful private mews off Perry Hill Road, providing a secure and delightful haven for your little ones. Our location offers tranquility while being incredibly convenient, just half a mile from Lower Sydenham station. This proximity ensures easy access to Cannon Street and Charing Cross, making drop-offs and pickups hassle-free for parents.

OUR FACILITIES

Little Elms Sydenham offers a delightful learning journey through play, creativity, and exploration. Tailored rooms for babies, toddlers, and pre-schoolers cater to each child's age and stage.

Our experienced team curates engaging activities, blending topics and themes with individual interests. Expansive indoor and outdoor spaces, including a lush garden with grassy patches and soft play areas, provide ample room for growth and adventure.

Committed to fostering a stimulating environment, we balance joy and learning with weekly sessions like Musical Bumps for our youngest and football for pre-schoolers. Sensory activities and holistic play enhance our youngest learners' experiences.

In the toddler room, discover a book corner, ICT, and creative areas. In the pre-school, early reading and writing are practiced, guided by a qualified teacher as we prepare your child for the exciting challenges of school.

OUR FEES
