

Lee

Thank you for considering Little Elms Lee for your child.

Established in 2010, Lee is Little Elms' second largest nursery with its own pre-school building. We're dedicated to providing a nurturing and stimulating environment, fostering strong bonds with parents for a happy nursery experience.

OUR LOCATION

Our nursery is nestled in a beautifully restored Victorian building on Handen Road, South London. Conveniently located between Hither Green and Lee stations, both offering direct links to central London, Little Elms Lee is easily accessible via major bus routes and is just a mile away from the DLR station at Lewisham.

OUR FACILITIES

Discover a nurturing environment tailored to your child's age and developmental stage. Our dedicated rooms for babies, toddlers, and pre-schoolers are meticulously designed to meet their unique needs, with a strong emphasis on fostering emotional, physical, and communication development through a variety of engaging activities.

Our experienced team curates activities that not only foster cognitive play but also weave in exciting themes aligned with each child's individual interests. With dedicated spaces like a home corner and ICT area, we create an environment that supports comprehensive growth. With weekly Musical Bumps sessions for our youngest learners to football sessions for pre-schoolers, we ensure a blend of fun and learning.

Indoors or outdoors, our facilities set the stage for growth and exploration. Our gardens tailored to different age groups, are set up each day with engaging activities that promote not just play but also essential physical development.

In our pre-school, under the guidance of a qualified teacher, children will be prepared for the exciting challenges of primary school. We promote free play, complemented by structured sessions. This ensures a holistic and enjoyable learning experience, laying a solid foundation for their future.
